

How to make Origami Bookmarks

These cool Origami Bookmarks are not only great for reminding your where you left off in your book but they also fix the corners of damaged paperbacks. The instructions below are for a simple version but you can find other "craftier" versions on the web.

Type "origami bookmarks" in your favorite search engine or on Pinterest and have FUN!

1.

Use a colorful or patterned sheet of paper. All sides must be even (e.g. 12x12, 6x6, or 4x4 inches)

2.

Fold in half, into a triangle.

3.

Bring the lower right corner to meet the top and smooth the fold down.

4.

Repeat step 3 with the bottom left corner.

5.

Open the two folds back up.

6.

Fold the top point to the bottom center.

7.

Fold the lower right corner to the top point.

8.

Tuck the bottom right corner into the "pocket".

9.

Repeat step 8 with the bottom left corner.

10.

Press the folds to make it as flat as possible.

YOU'RE DONE!

Mail your creations to:
Promising Pages
4020 Yancey Rd.
Charlotte, NC 28217